Atlanta, April 4.-Ripping the rails at Paducah hungry. a rate of sixty to seventy miles an hour, Ethel Roosevelt, daughter of the President, pulled No. 38, of the West Point line, into the Atlanta terminal station at noon to-day.

"This is the jolliest frolic I have ever had!" she said, shaking hands warmly with Engineer John R. Still.

Jauntily she jumped to the station platform, assisted by Capt. Fitzhugh Lee, the President's aid, and ran back to the special car containing Mrs. Roosevelt and

The party included Mrs. Roosevelt, wife of the President; Miss Ethel Roosevelt, Kermit, Quentin, and Archie, her three younger sons; Miss Hagner, Miss Landon, and Capt, Fitzhugh Lee. Very few who saw the young lady tripping down the station platform recognized her or knew of the startling adventure through which she had just passed.

The party was in Atlanta only fifteen minutes, Miss Ethel having brought the train in on time. The departure was to the minute, at 12:15.
